"The word "orphan" might not seem to apply to a fifty-three-year-old woman. Yet this is exactly how Sandra feels as she finds herself motherless, alone like "a glove left behind at the bus station." What just might save her is her search for someone else gone missing: Marie, the black-and-white cat of her friend, Roz, who ran off the day they arrived from Tacoma.

Have you seen Marie?, Sandra Cisneros ; illustrated by ...

Sandra Cisneros does. 'Have You Seen Marie?' is about loss, but also, it is about comfort, friendship, searching, and, finally about finding what is lost and more. It's a simple story. A woman's mother died; she grieves-- both for her mother and for her lost daughterhood. She "... felt like a glove left behind in a bus station." I've been there.
