But I did end up making a custom dot grid insert with an index that I can print off over and over. I currently have 3 custom inserts in my travelers notebook: a meal planning insert I designed (you can get it on etsy here), and two of my dot grid ones that I am using for my collections and my weekly/daily inserts. When I got my inserts in, I ...

Bullet journals share a set of common features, if not design, and that's where we'll get started. Let's dive in. Step 1: Make an Index Page. The first blank spread of a new bullet journal becomes the index page. It might seem silly writing an index page for an empty notebook, but rest assured that it won't stay empty for long.
